Did You know?...

- Sexual abuse and sexual assault happens to people of all ages.
- Sexual abuse and sexual assault can happen to males or females.
- Sexual abuse and sexual assault is about power and violence. It is not about love.
- Sexual abuse and sexual assault has nothing to do with sexual orientation.
- Victims and offenders may be either heterosexual or homosexual.
- The fact that a victim of sexual abuse and sexual assault became sexually aroused does not mean they were not raped or that they gave consent. These are normal, involuntary reactions.
- Any sexual contact between staff and inmates is against the law.
- Any sexual contact between inmates is against the law.
- It is common for survivors of sexual abuse and sexual assault to have feelings of embarrassment, anger, guilt, panic, depression and fear even several months or years after an attack.

If you sexually abuse another inmate you should know...

An investigation will take place. You will face consequences from ADOC and you will face additional criminal charges. If you are found guilty, your time at ADOC may be extended.

Consider that unprotected sex increases your risk of HIV infection, along with exposing you to other sexually transmitted diseases.

If you have trouble controlling your actions ask for help from your Case Manager or Advocacy Representative. Stay busy with positive activities like letter writing or physical exercise.
